Foreword

Enjoy this visual treat

At SunTec, we have always believed in creating a work environment where our employees love what they do and are inspired to do their best, both professionally and personally.

For over 30 years now we have put the philosophy of value exchange at the heart of everything we do - nurturing client relationships as well as employee relationships that has enabled us to come this far. While we've created world-class products, it's our people who have transformed this passion into action.

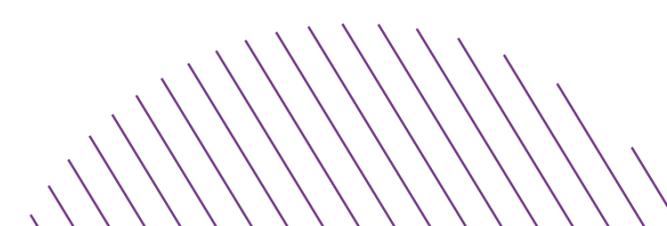

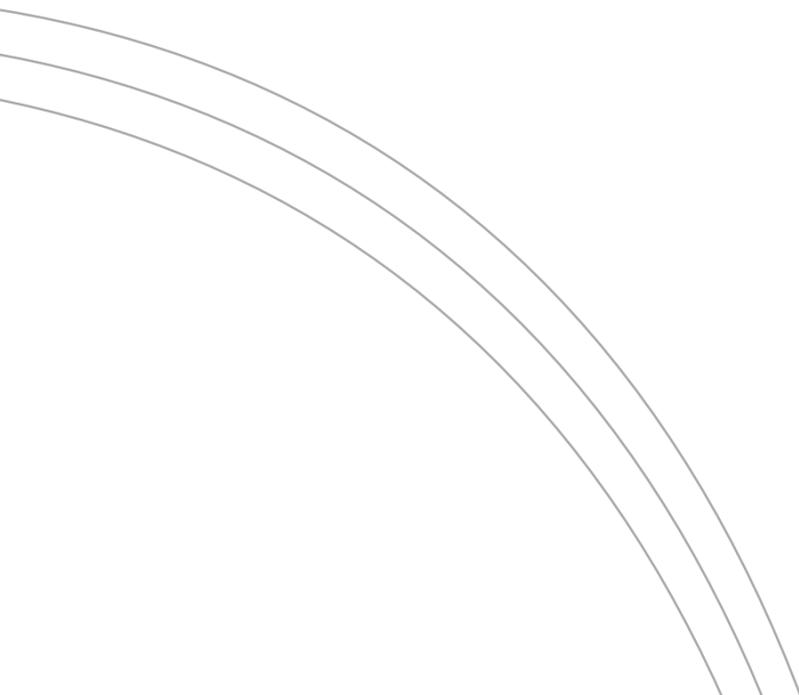

In the first edition of People of SunTec, we featured stories of the enduring spirit of our employees who demonstrated adaptability, novel approaches, and a problem-solving attitude when the world went into a lock down last year.

In this edition, we bring you a compilation of the creative spark of our employees – a visual book that demonstrates their interests and hobbies outside of work. Ranging from photography and travel blogging to cooking, the book showcases the plethora of talent within SunTec.

We hope you enjoy this visual treat.

Creative Expressions

Anantha Krishnan P,
Software Engineer, Dubai

Anantha Krishnan from our Global Support team has a keen eye for composition. He discovered his flair for photography through a friend's phone. What had begun as an amateur attempt, soon became his way of visual storytelling.

He certainly has an innate ability to capture a fresh perspective through his pictures and vlogs. He uses both – his OnePlus3 phone as well as a GoPro 6 for his pictures.

Anoop Vijayan,
Senior Visual Designer,
Trivandrum

Ever wondered what makes a photographer so passionate about his craft? It's simply his need to express himself through pictures. The photographer sees and his lens narrates. When he isn't creating videos or graphics for SunTec, he explores new places with his Canon 80D.

Manikandan,
Software Engineer, Dubai

Manikandan, a.k.a. Mani, began his career at SunTec as a fresher five years ago. He enjoys capturing moments without any filters as he feels it retains the originality.

What he absolutely loves about photography is how it can make time stand still. He finds joy in clicking everyday objects or anything that catches his attention. He uses his Moto G4 Plus mobile for his photography.

Nanda Kumar,
Founder & CEO,
SunTec Business Solutions

Nanda Kumar, our Founder and CEO also shares his passion for photography.

Wildlife and nature have always intrigued him. While he travels, he often captures birds or animals in their undisturbed natural setting. He believes it brings out their raw beauty and that's what makes a perfect shot!

Preetha Thomas,
Senior Architect, US

People globally are more environmentally conscious today and have started adopting a sustainable way of living. Preetha has always been interested in Reducing- Reusing-Recycling, but her hobby is aligned with the fourth R of 'Repurposing'. Her son's school project sparked her interest in this hobby. Blank cards and a stamp that read Happy Valentine's Day is all that she had for the school project. She then turned to left over Christmas wrapping paper and cut out hearts to paste on to the cards. And that's how she completed the Valentine's Day project! She simply turns everyday resources into something more purposeful.

For Preetha, her crafts are simple and imperfect, yet meaningful.

DIY

Rajeswary S,
Senior Architect, Trivandrum

Simply put, cooking is creative and therapeutic for Rajeswary. While she enjoys trying new dishes & recipes from across the globe, she also has some traditional dishes that are her favorites. She in fact, has also created a WhatsApp group with SunTec women who share her love for cooking.

She is also a DIY enthusiast and loves home gardening and interior décor.

Creative Expressions

Sandeep Bhaskar,
Senior Consultant, London

Sandeep is an avid travel blogger. He captures his travel experience in a unique way though. It's about the experience, the moment captured through pictures and to offer a sense of perspective, he marks the latitude & longitude on an app that he's developed.

A techie at heart, he created 'The Invisible Trail', an app that creates visual stories. He microblogs on Tumblr, syncs his travel pics with Google photos with a location meta-data and checks in to places using Swarm. He then loads all this data via automated APIs. What does the result look like? A beautiful visual timeline of his travel!

Creative Expressions

Farheen Taj,
Software Engineer,
Trivandrum

The last year, in many ways, gave individuals the time to hone their skills. For Farheen, it started as a simple activity to rekindle her hobby of painting and sketching. She seeks comfort in this creative hobby and today, this is part of her daily routine. It helps her channel her anger in a positive way, she admits.

All she needs to get started are her modest sketching tools - a canvas, some acrylic paints, and some pencils. Her work ranges from abstract compositions to pencil sketches.

Creative Expressions

Sreekumar R,
Consultant – Client &
Partner Training, Trivandrum

Sreekumar has always had a flair for painting and art in general. He believes that the beauty of art lies in its innate ability to express an artist's emotions. He often sketches and paints popular personalities or anything that intrigues him.
